

Repentance The Joy Filled Life

Repentance The Joy Filled Life

Repentance is one of the first principles of the gospel and is essential to our temporal and eternal happiness. It is much more than just acknowledging wrongdoings. It is a change of mind and heart that gives us a fresh view about God, about ourselves, and about the world. It includes turning away from sin and turning to God for forgiveness.

Repentance - The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

Charles Spurgeon writes: Repentance is a discovery of the evil of sin, a mourning that we have committed it, a resolution to forsake it. It is, in fact, a change of mind of a very deep and practical character, which makes the man love what once he hated, and hate what once he loved.

What Is Repentance? | Desiring God

For in the case of those who have once been enlightened and have tasted of the heavenly gift and have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, and then have fallen away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance, since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God, and put him to open shame.

If you have time, you might want to consider in conjunction with Lesson 10, "David's Rise, Fall, and Punishment" (2 Samuel 8-12), David's two penitential psalms -- Psalm 51 and 32 give us some wonderful insights into the depth of sin and the wonder of God's grace. I've included them in this appendix to keep Lesson 10 at a manageable length. If you're studying this with a group, this appendix ...

David's Psalms of Repentance (Psalms 51 and 32)

Perhaps no Scripture text has logged more pulpit time in our culture than this wonderful parable. It is a storehouse of sin and redemption, of grace and the refusal of grace, and one can read it from several different perspectives--the father, the prodigal, the older brother.

CHURCH FATHERS: Concerning Repentance, Book I (Ambrose)

The Chronological 4 Gospels are the accounts of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, with a few verses from Acts and 1st Corinthians, combined in chronological form. This enables a person to read and study all four as a unit. One can read Matthew's account of an event, and then read the same event in the other accounts.

Chronological Study #7 Part 4

Religious people often complain that we grace preachers don't emphasize repentance sufficiently. It's true. I hardly emphasize it at all. But then neither did the Apostle John. Here's something that will fry your mind: Repentance is one of the most important things you'll ever do but John never mentions the word. Not once. Not in...

I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because you hold me in your heart ...
