big city libraries are now almost more a community center and media/information access center rather than just a place for books/movies. I think libraries could become powerful institutions again, simply for the reason they are one of the few groups actually positively helping the growing homeless problem.

Franz Boas was born in Minden, Westphalia, the son of Sophie Meyer and Meier Boas. Although his grandparents were observant Jews, his parents embraced Enlightenment values, including their assimilation into modern German society. Boas's parents were educated, well-to-do, and liberal; they did not like dogma of any kind. Due to this, Boas was granted the independence to think for himself and ...
